

WE'RE A DESIGN-LED TEXTILE STUDIO
WEAVING CARE, CREATIVITY, AND COMMUNITY THROUGH SISTER BRANDS
SOMETHING GOOD HOMEWARE &
ROMARIA KNITWEAR

Based in South Africa, Something Good Studio collaborates with artists and designers to create high-quality, limited-run textiles. Each piece is made with care and intention — honouring both craft and community.

WE DON'T CHASE SEASONS OR TRENDS.

Our studio champions
mindful production.
Small batches.
Timeless design.
Natural fibres.
Because good things take time — and deserve to last.

From deeply considered production practices to thoughtful packaging, every part of the process reflects our values rooted in collaboration and embracing slow artistry. Care is woven into every step of the process.

Community is the fabric of our studio. We build alternative economies of care — working with artists and local producers to create shared value and bring meaningful, functional design to life. This is what it means to weave forward together.

While all Something Good Studio products are proudly made in South Africa, our co-owners live on different continents: Zydia is based in South Africa; Carla lives in Portugal. This cross-continental partnership enriches our perspective — helping us understand how textiles are experienced, valued, and circulated across different cultures and contexts.
