

SALABIM

The Magic of Holding Space

SALABIM creates interior design objects, handcrafted in South Africa from repurposed rare woven textiles sourced locally. Each weave is inherently unique - no repeats, no reprints, no replicas.

Our first creation - where function meets art

A weighted art-piece for the home:

- designed to hold doors open
- anchor books upright
- sit as a decorative piece on a shelf

Fabrics & finish Origins: South Africa • Morocco • South America

Each product features:

- Hand-selected woven textile composition
- Leather or suede handle
- Laser-engraved unique serial number
- Certificate of Authenticity (sent via email)

Available filled (4kg) or travel-ready unfilled.

Arrives in a custom drawstring bag.

Founded by Jared Ungar

Guided by long-time friend and advisor Stephen Falcke, one of South Africa's most prolific interior designers

